

Executive Committee Résumés

New Milton Town Partnership Executive Committee Members

Robin Ede Chairman

Former principal of a New Milton firm of Independent Financial Advisers and Commercial Insurance Brokers, Robin Ede was also a Director of an export transport company running container vehicles from his New Milton base. Robin is a member of the New Milton Rotary Club and of the Jubilee Committee.

Steve Davies Secretary

A professionally accredited Project Manager with over 25 years in the Information Technology industry supporting businesses in the Financial Services and Telecoms sectors, Steve is also a Town Councillor and a member of the Lions Club of New Milton.

Steve is married to Alison and they have three children.

John Evans Treasurer

John Evans MSI, a Stockbroker for over 35 years moved to New Milton after marrying local girl Pam in 1971; they have one son, Gareth. Wishing to become involved in the community, John joined the Lions Club in 1972 and has been President on three occasions. In recent years, John was a Town Councillor, Chairing the former Town Project Committee and he is now Vice-Chairman of the local Chamber of Commerce.

Neil Tungate

Neil has lived in or near New Milton most of his life, having been educated at Ashley Junior and Brockenhurst Grammar schools, and is employed in an international company locally as a Software Quality Manager. He lives in Bashley with his wife, Betty, and is chairman of the Finance Committee of New Milton Town Council. Neil is a member of the Lions Club of New Milton.

Wyn Davies

When not carrying out his duties as a Town Councillor, Wyn Davies was a project manager with the marine consultants Three Quays Marine Services Limited, having previously spent 10 years with the Royal Corps of Naval Constructors. A fully qualified naval architect and a member of the Heritage Lottery Fund's Directory of Expert Advisors, he now divides his working time between historic ships and the RN's latest projects as a senior consultant with Frazer-Nash Consultancy.

David Hall

David has been a New Milton resident for 8 years. He is a practicing Project Manager with responsibility for a budget of several million pounds and is an experienced Risk Management practitioner. David is a member of the Association for Project Management and holds a Masters Degree in Business Administration.

Sandra Fagan

Sandy was born in Lymington and is married to Robert, who was born in Bashley. They run a family business in New Milton in Station Road south. They have two adult children Michael and Jacqueline both educated at The Arnewood School, and Sandy has a keen interest in local matters.

Colin Christmas

Colin Christmas qualified as an Electrical Engineer and spent his early career in the Electricity Supply industry before spending 25 years in Marketing for a Computer Manufacturer. He now concentrates on painting and writing. He has lived in New Milton for six years

Rupert Davies

Rupert has lived in New Milton all of his life apart from school and University. He works for his family owned department store, Smith Bradbeer, which has been part of the town for over sixty years and established for over one hundred and sixty five years. He is the youngest member of the town partnership committee.

Helen Wallis-Dowling

Helen and her family have lived in New Milton for three years. She is the Director of the South of England for the social action trust, RE:generate. Previously a youth worker in the New Forest area for eight years, Helen facilitates the New Milton Play & Youth Work Group. She is a co-opted member of the Executive Committee.

Advisors to New Milton Town Partnership Executive Committee:

Honorary Auditor Adrian Bunston of Chartered Accountants Willis,
Parsons

Solicitor Malcolm Leatherdale, Heppenstalls, 39-41 High Street, Lyndhurst, Hants.